AMC GRAM PASSENGER TRAVEL INFORMATION (NAVY)

Taxi Service on and off base available 24 hrs a day, that is rather expensive. The cost is about 40 Euro or about 45 Euro for one-way trip to "Fontanarossa" international airport. A taxi ride to the train station is about 30 Euro or 35 Euro. Remember all prices are subject to change and vary with the euro to dollar exchange rate. Negotiate the price prior to departure (to and/or from base). The most economical way of getting to Catania is by using public transportation system. The bus is by far the cheapest and easiest. The public commercial bus system passes in front of the Support Site Base, NAS I To catch the bus, make your way to NAS I by using the free base shuttle bus service. Catch the blue bus marked for Catania in front of the Security station in front of NAS I. It is advised that you have the correct change in Euro. The cost for a one-way trip down town is 2- 4 Euro. This bus will terminate at the Catania train station downtown Catania. The train station is the main bus transfer point for most Catania and local destinations. To get back to base, catch the blue bus that is marked for "Ramacca".

Also there is a Orange bus #427 ticket price is 1,50 Euro that you can buy aboard, from NAS II main gate to Catania center and train station square, and it comes back to NAS II.
