Press Release

Seabee Day 2014 is sure to please

Open to the public and FREE

GULFPORT, Miss. – Seabee Day 2014 at the Naval Construction Battalion Center (Seabee Center) March 8 is coming together nice and will include more free fun and free entertainment.

Seabee Day begins at 9 a.m. with an opening ceremony and will feature free carnival rides, car and truck show, free petting zoo, games, food, a chicken wing eating contest, military demonstrations, 80 vendors, musical guests and much, much more.

This year's musical guests are Navy Band New Orleans, Jennifer Donovan, and the Myles Sharp Band featuring Rebecca Powers who will play throughout the day.

In addition, the United Service Organization (USO) is bringing their Mobile USO to the event. Mobile USOs were designed to be centers on wheels, providing signature USO services to our troops where they do not have a traditional “brick and mortar” facility.

This community event is FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. Everyone is invited on board for a first-hand look at the Navy's construction engineers. Seabee Day 2014 highlights the mission and accomplishments of the men and women of the Naval Construction Force, affectionately known as the Seabees.

This event relies on non-appropriated funds and sponsors. Sponsorship and Vendor requests are still being accepted.
