

Navy School Liaison Officer

Connecting Navy Families, Commands and K-12 Schools

The Navy School Liaison Officer Program helps to ensure school personnel are aware of the stressors on military families brought about by frequent transitions and extended deployments.

What Services do School Liaison Officers Provide?

The School Liaison Officer specializes in serving military families and offers a wide spectrum of services, enabling families to become more involved in their child's educational experience. Services include:

- Supporting families with inbound/outbound school transfers
- Providing information on local schools and boundaries
- Assisting with school choice
- Helping families understand the special education process
- Providing information about graduation requirements
- Making military and community agency referrals
- Supporting families with the home schooling process
- Assisting with post-secondary preparation
