Norfolk Naval Shipyard's First Female Group Superintendent to speak at Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads Women's History Month Ceremony

Norfolk, VA – To commemorate Women's History Month, Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads will host a ceremony featuring guest speaker, Ms. Carol Pugh, on March 29 at 11 a.m. at the POW/MIA Chapel. Pugh is the first female Group Superintendent in Norfolk Naval Shipyard's 243-year history.

Ms. Pugh began her career as an Administrative Assistant in the Supply Depot Technical Division in 1984. She was accepted into the shipyard's apprenticeship program that same year and worked in various platforms throughout the years to include Electrician Supervisor, Nuclear Zone Manager, and Electrical Nuclear Director.

Ms. Pugh was selected as Norfolk Naval Shipyard's Electrical/Electronics Group Superintendent in December 2010.

Note to Media: Outlets interested in covering this event should contact the Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads Public Affairs Officer at 836-1484 or 770-5045.
