Naval Station Norfolk Hosts Free Concert

Norfolk, Va. – Naval Station Norfolk will host national recording artists Montgomery Gentry May 18 at 7 p.m. as part of Navy Region Mid-Atlantic Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) 2012 Navy Concert schedule. Gates open at 5 p.m. Admission is free and open to the general public. The concert will be held in the Vista Point area.

Widely regarded as one of country music's greatest duos, Montgomery Gentry boasts dozens of Academy of Country Music and Country Music Association awards and nominations. The group has recorded 7 studio albums to date. Their body of work includes more than twenty singles on the Billboard hot country songs charts. Notable number one singles include "If You Ever Stop Loving Me", "Something to be Proud of", "Lucky Man" and "Roll with Me".

Non-Department of Defense guests should enter Naval Station Norfolk via Gate 2 off Hampton Blvd. Concert attendees are reminded that tailgating, coolers, glass containers, video equipment, pets or large bag/backpacks are not permitted in the concert area. All small bags, blankets, chairs and other items are subject to being searched prior to entering concert grounds.
