Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads to host Inaugural Back to School Extravaganza

Norfolk, VA – Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads (NSA HR) will give local families a helping hand in preparing for the upcoming school year.

NSA HR will host the Inaugural Back to School Extravaganza at CAPT Slade Cutter Athletic Park from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Aug. 10.

This free event will feature games and activities for various ages. There will be Explosive Ordnance Disposal Robots and a mobile technology lab demonstration, a puppet show, free lunch, music, an hourly raffle for free book bags and school supplies, and different resource tables with information on environmental education, Tidewater Community College, Fleet and Family Support Center, and Operation Homefront.

Note to Media: Outlets interested in covering this event should contact the Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads Public Affairs Officer at 836-1484 or 770-5045.
